

LOCALS

The Alpine Club tramp to Elele Falls in Waihee Valley tomorrow.

October term of Circuit Court at Wailuku opens on Wednesday, October 12.

Showery weather with some heavy rains here prevailed on Central Maui this week.

J. K. Bergstrom, Piano and Organ Tuner and Repairer. Leave orders to the Maui News.

The big drum cylinder press for the News will arrive by the next Nevada, due in October.

Preliminary surveys on the big Waihee ditch have been begun, at the Waihee end of the line.

There is some talk of establishing golf links in Wailuku and introducing the popular game on Maui.

When you want a high grade smoke drop into the Maui Hotel Office, and you will find the best cigar in town.

Work on the new schoolhouse is progressing rapidly, and the building is beginning to near completion.

It is expected that bids will be called for soon in the matter of the construction of the road up Iao Valley.

Owing to the demand for the republican campaign sheet, 500 copies extra will be issued from now till the end of the campaign.

Quite a number of travelling men in Honolulu are doing business on Maui this week, and report that business is picking up.

The entire front of the Bailey block on Main Street has been repainted and renovated, which adds much to the business center of the town.

The Board of Registration will be in Wailuku on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of next week, and in Lahaina on Thursday. This will close their work.

The Morning Star team, reinforced by several other of Maui's best players have accepted a challenge to go to Honolulu on Oct. 22 and play the Maile lillas two games of ball.

The republican candidates have just completed a tour around East Maui, and the home-rulers started out Thursday on the back track of their opponents. The fight is now on.

The report of the condition of the First National Bank of Wailuku published in this issue demonstrates that the News guessed right when it asked for the establishment of a bank here.

The News desires to add its word praise to the ladies of Wailuku who so unselfishly and energetically aided their efforts to make the Governor at Wailuku last Monday such a success from an artistic and gastronomic point as it proved to be.

"Jack" Bergstrom, the popular and skillful organ and piano tuner, who is now filling engagements on Maui, reports to the News that the big new oil-burning engine of the Kahului Railroad ran into the round house the other evening, and added a moment's reflective pause nobody was hurt.

It may now be conceded that the appropriations for the Wailuku outhouse and the Kahului wharf practically lapsed, and it is up to the representatives from Maui to secure a 75,000 appropriation for the Wailuku Courthouse at the next session of the legislature, as $35,000 is now more than a half enough to erect the building needed.

NOTICE.

Mr. Arthur Jones, representing the McInerney Shoe Store, will arrive at Puuene on the morning Oct. 3, with a complete assortment of samples of every thing carried in the shoe line, by his firm. He will also visit Paia, Hamakua and Lahaina soliciting orders, visiting each place, as soon as completing the other. Mr. Jones, has just returned from an extensive visit through the eastern states, to the center of all trade and fashion, where he personally selected the new styles which he is now showing. This is a great opportunity to get properly and satisfactorily fitted, and gives one an immense assortment of shoes to select from. As Mr. Jones time, will be limited, he can only make but short stays in each place, so that customers must see him early.

Maui Plays Honolulu.

Captain Sidney A. Crook of the Maile-Ilima ball team of Honolulu has sent a written challenge to Secretary J. Garcia of the Morning Star team of Wailuku to come to Honolulu for a ball game in the latter part of October. Mr. Crook offers to pay the expenses of the local team, and also to allow them to supplement their team by substituting any crack players whom they may choose from Maui.

In reply, the Stars through their secretary replied that the challenge was accepted, but suggested two games instead of one. On last Wednesday an answer was received from Mr. Crook agreeing to give our boys two games and fixing the dates on Oct. 22 and 24, which is quite satisfactory to the Maui team. Although the challenge was primarily to the Morning Stars, still it is stated that several outside players, including Henderson, Morris and Kaalai will be invited to take part in the game. This will make a strong team, and Maui may reasonably expect our boys to return home with victory perched upon their banner, provided they do plenty of practice work between now and the date fixed for the games.

The New Engine.

The Kahului Railroad can well be proud of the new oil burning engine recently received and which made its initial trip by conveying the Governor's party to the various points visited by them.

While this engine is possibly no heavier than others in the employ of the railroad it is one of the newest models of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, and is fitted with all the latest appliances for durability and speed.

A feature, or rather attachment, which is a novelty on the Islands is the Pyle Electric headlights with a dynamo of 250 volts. This light when turned on at night will throw a penetrating for light for a full half mile.

The engine will be used for the hauling of the passenger trains between Kahului, Paia, Speckelsville, Puuene and Wailuku.

With the further addition of the first and second class coach and baggage car combined now being constructed the Kahului Railroad will be as fully equipped in up to date coaches and engines as any road on the islands.

LAHAINA LINES.

The Chinese Full Moon Festival was observed in due form by the Wo Hing Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas arrived from Hawaii last Saturday, and left on the following day.

Messrs. Aalberg and Isenberg have been in Honolulu for a few days.

Mrs. Gibb and her children are visiting friends in Honolulu.

Arthur Ewart was in town last Saturday.

Mrs. Samuel Woods has been the guests of Col. Richardson.

Several persons from Lahaina were at the Governor's reception on the other side of the island.

The water pipes have been laid in the Courthouse Park.

The Governor arrived in town shortly after 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. He drove past the Republican Headquarters, where there was a fine display of flags and bunting, and a number of prominent citizens gave him a hearty welcome. Governor Carter then retired to the hotel to rest; and, later in the evening, by special invitation he visited Manager Barkhausen. Returning to the waterfront, he made an excellent speech at the Pioneer Hotel, favoring good roads, an equitable settlement of the water question, and justice to all. He referred to the responsibility resting upon the people; and expressed his thanks for the generous receptions given in all parts of the Island of Maui.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas and child are at the Pioneer Hotel this week. Mr. Nicholas was formerly employed as chemist at the Pioneer Mill; and he is now in the service of a plantation.
